Editorial

There's plenty of action in the lower divisions over the coming months, with several clubs celebrating momentous occasions.

Bayside United Soccer Club (previously Wondall United) celebrate their 25th anniversary on August 21, with all former players welcome.

The club has a special "mighty mixed match" planned, with kick-off set for 3pm.

Both clubs are finding life tough in Amateur division one but look to have things flowing well off the field.

Meanwhile, the closing date for Miss Queensland Soccer entrants is almost upon us, with entries due in by Friday.

As always, the Quest has some fantastic prizes for this year's entrants, with $5000 air fare travel to anywhere in the world for the eventual winner.

The Quest also gives supporters a chance to show their loyalty towards their club. So hurry up and get your entries in.

The leading goalscorers ladder is looking interesting with three players equal on 11 goals apiece and four players on nine goals each.

Messrs. Scott Rocker (Wynnum), Matt Olley (Rochedale) and Andy Brayshaw (Mt Gravatt) will all be looking for the net this weekend in the hope of taking the lead. However my tip for the end of the season is the Gold Coast City's scoring machine.... Peter Dwyer.

The way it was last weekend

Rochedale took a 1-0 lead into halftime before scoring two second half goals to wrap up a valuable three points.

Rovers maintained a five point lead over the Gold Coast, who beat Toowoomba by the identical score on Sunday.

The battle for third and fourth remains as intense as ever, with two points separating third-placed Brisbane City and sixth-placed Ipswich Knights.

Clark blasted in a shot from close range to open the Knights scoring in the first half before seizing on a through ball from midfielder Brenley Jefferd to score Ipswich's second.

The Knights had been going through a rough patch but bounced back with a vital win against City to keep their finals dream alive.

Goalkeeper Sam Ferguson was the star for the Knights, making several outstanding saves including two stunners off City striker Chris Slater.

Brisbane Lions bounced back to form on Sunday with a 3-1 win over the hapless Mt Gravatt, who have assumed the wooden spoon position after a run of poor results.

Mt Gravatt were coming off a 6-1 hammering at the hands of Taringa in their catch-up game last week, with Taringa's forward line of Des Hughes, Andrew Packer and Ben Wood toying with the defence.

It was Lions turn to take advantage of Mt Gravatt's leaky defence at the weekend, with striker Greg Di Losa scoring two goals and Steve Jackson grabbing the third. Mt Gravatt scored through striker Andy Brayshaw.

Brisbane Strikers midfielder Shane Stefanutto and teammates Michael Richardson and Adam Evans were on target for the Coast, who retained second place and kept Rochedale honest with the win. Toowoomba' s reply came from Colin Hackwood.

At Wynnum on Saturday night, Taringa overcame the sending off of striker Des Hughes to secure an important 2-1 win over the home side.

With both sides down to 10 men, Scott Robertson scored a late winner in injury time to gift Taringa a valuable three points.

Taringa and the Knights are in equal fifth place, with both sides on 31 points and sharing a game in hand.

The winner of that game will leapfrog Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions and move into outright third.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Rochedale Rov v Brisbane Lions

Rochedale have been in superb form in recent weeks and hold a five point edge over the second placed Gold Coast. But they can't afford to slip up with their game against Lions followed by a clash with the Gold Coast.

Lions are in even worse shape, with Bleiberg's side needing to win their seven remaining games to have any chance of winning the premiership.

"If we win this I believe we will be heading in the right direction," Bleiberg said.

"If we win every game from now until the end of the season we can win it. It is not impossible.

"It is a crucial two weeks for everybody."

It's been a lean year for the speedy frontman but the weekend's game should give him a huge boost of confidence heading into the end of the season.

"The key for us is to play to our potential," Bleiberg said.

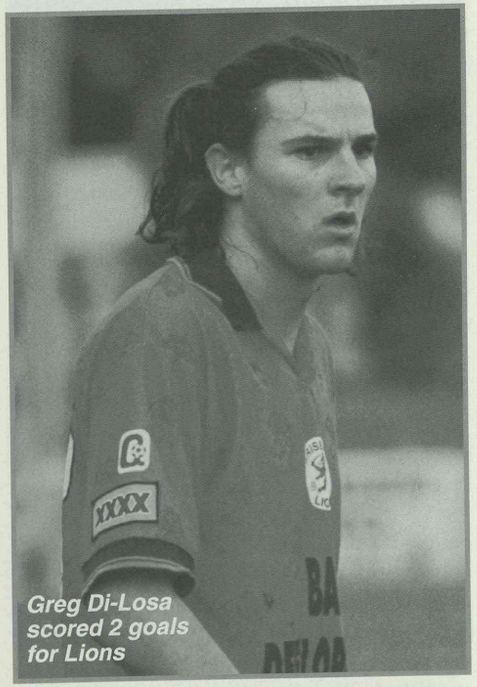
"I think it is easier to be a chaser.

"If we are feeling motivated and hungry there's no reason why we can't do it."

WHO'S HOT: Lions defensive trio of Darren Sime, Steve Jackson and Roy Huth is among the best in the league. Rochedale sport the league's best attacking record. Midfielder David Pilic has been in great form and is starting to score regularly.

FORM GUIDE: Lions look to have overcome their mid-season slump while Rochedale have been purring like a well-oiled machine.

TIP: Lions to upset Rochedale 2-1.



Greg Di-Losa scored 2 goals for Lions

PREMIER PREVIEW - Mt Gravatt v Gold Coast City

Mt Gravatt coach John Stewart rates the Gold Coast the best team in the Premier League and knows his side faces a searching test this weekend.

With Mt Gravatt out of finals contention, Stewart is taking the chance to try some of the club's teenagers with a view towards next season.

That makes his job this weekend all the more difficult, with the Coast preying on the weaker teams in this year's Premier League.

Mt Gravatt have conceded goals at will this year and sport the league's worst defensive record.

With the Coast boasting the league's most dangerous striker in the form of Peter Dwyer, it could be a long day once again for Stewart.

"We have a situation where when we have suspensions and injuries, it is not just one or two players but three or four," Stewart said.

"We don't seem to have enough players on the field with the experience to change things."

Young Brisbane Strikers signing Shane Stefanutto has also been in superb form for the Coast and netted a goal at the weekend.

"I am not surprised they are up there because we played them earlier in the season and they have definitely been the best side we have played," Stewart said.

"We have to stop their supply (to their frontmen)."

WHO'S HOT: Gold Coast midfielder Shane Stefanutto has been outstanding for the Coast since joining the club. He will have to be watched. Mt Gravatt have had few stars this year but striker Andy Brayshaw has scored plenty of goals and is always dangerous.
FORM GUIDE: The Coast are on fire and Mt Gravatt are struggling. It's hard to see this game producing an upset.
TIP: The Coast to win easily.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Taringa Rovers v Brisbane City

An understrength Taringa must overcome the loss of four first team players if they are to keep their momentum going against a sadly out-of-form Brisbane City at Taringa on Sunday.

John Ogden's side will be without striker Des Hughes (suspension), defenders Chris Day (suspension) and Jamie Lowndes (injury) and midfielder Shaun Molenda (suspension) for what shapes as another crucial game in their finals chase.

Taringa snuck away with a 2-1 win at the weekend while City struggled against the Ipswich Knights, losing 2-0. City had plenty of chances but couldn't beat Knights keeper Sam Ferguson, who produced a stupendous display in front of his home fans.

The current City side barely resembles the unit which won the premiership last year, with several players leaving in the past month.

Defender Damon Voss needs a knee reconstruction and will miss the rest of the year and goalkeeper Daniel Duke remains on the sideline with injury.

Former National League defender Mark Battistin has slipped back into sweeper while striker Chris Slater is still battling the nagging effects of posterior cruciate damage in his knee.

Ironically, one of the side's leading scorers, Damien Waugh, spent all Sunday's game on the bench despite his side's impotence in front of goal.

Taringa have a game in hand against the Knights but they can ill afford to drop points.

WHO'S HOT: Taringa's Andrew Packer has been in superb form. He missed several weeks with injury but marked his return with a great game against Mt Gravatt. City's Wayne Strange is one of the league's best players and continues to play well in an erratic side.
FORM GUIDE: Taringa are playing well but are missing several key players while City are about as reliable as a second hand Victor.
TIP: A low-scoring draw

PREMIER PREVIEW - Toowoomba Utd v Ipswich Knights

The Ipswich Knights are walking a fine line between finals contenders and pretenders as the Premier League enters crunch time.

The Knights kept their hopes alive with an impressive 2-0 win over Brisbane City on Sunday and face a tough match in Toowoomba this weekend.

Toowoomba are coming off a 3-1 loss to the red-hot Gold Coast but are more than capable of springing a surprise as they become acclimatised to life in the Premier League.

Knights coach Frank Pimblett said his side had re-discovered their passion and commitment at the weekend, with two John Clark goals proving the difference in a tight game.

"The boys were very passionate and committed ... stuff that we had for the first half of the year but for the last three or four games we haven't had at that level," Pimblett said.

"We spoke about it. You just can't do it when you feel like it. Not when you play teams like City and Lions.

"You need that commitment."

The Knights defensive trio of Scott Stenzel, Clint Scott and Ken Caldwell were outstanding, shutting down City's all national league frontline of Royce Brownlie and Chris Slater.

They may face a lower quality forward line this weekend, but the Toowoomba strikers will be enthusiastic and keen to challenge the Knights outstanding defensive record.

"It was absolutely crucial that we picked up the three points," Pimblett said of the City win. "I am overjoyed for the boys."

WHO'S HOT: Ipswich Knights stopper Clint Scott has silenced many of the League's big names this year. He's one of the best young defenders. Toowoomba's Colin Hackwood has been among the goals in recent weeks.
FORM GUIDE: The Knights re-discovered their goal scoring touch against City and need the win to remain in contention for the finals. But Toowoomba are capable of springing an upset.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Wynnum Dist. v Bundaberg Waves

Frustrated Wynnum coach Peter Tokesi is optimistic his side can win the 'battle of the underachievers' this weekend when they meet Bundaberg at home.

In the end only an injury time winner cost the Wolves a share of the points in a game which gave Tokesi and his side a shot of confidence.

It was a bitter loss for Wynnum, with the refereeing drawing plenty of attention from Tokesi and his players.

Both teams had players sent off - Wynnum's Wayne Hinton and Taringa's Des Hughes - and Tokesi was smarting after he felt his side was on the wrong end of some bad decisions.

"Those things go against you when you're at the bottom," Tokesi said.

"I thought we would go on with it.

"Then you go in the dressing room and you feel for the players. Nothing is going our way. But that's our lot at the moment."

Bundaberg have fallen in a heap after a great start to the year and have no chance of making the finals.

Striker Wayne Knipe gave the side a boost but he has been quiet in recent weeks.

Tokesi knows he and teammate Jacob Noe have to be watched.

"I think we have to try and get them in the midfield," Tokesi said.

WHO'S HOT: Wynnum defender Steve Foreshaw has found some form after injury earlier in the year while Bundaberg striker Wayne Knipe is always dangerous.
FORM GUIDE: Both sides are struggling but Bundaberg scored a win at Wynnum on a Sunday afternoon in the first round. Expect Wynnum to reverse that result here.
TIP: Wynnum to win 3-2.

BEFORE THE WHISTLE

With Jim Gilbert

Well, another round dozen matches were called off last weekend, which is now causing a severe backlog in the Amateur Divisions, as they only have four rounds of fixtures left to play.

It is essential that all these matches are caught up before Wednesday 28 of July to avoid the finals series having to be delayed, which causes further disruptions.

So everyone has to show a little patience, we are all collectively doing the best we can, but the weather is the one aspect over which none of us have any control.

Trying to fit in the three Cup competitions in the mid week areas as well, is also causing some headaches, but, again using that monumental word 'patience' we'll get through the season!

Amateur 1

North Pine now opening up a lead at the top, Moggill appear to have a second place secure in their sights, while it's anyone's guess who will take out the other semi placings.

This weekend the Soccer Pools are running coupons on both Saturday and Sunday matches, so the gamblers amongst us will have to sharpen their pencils!

In the Saturday games Samford host a rejuvenated Bayside, with the teams now only five points apart, could well be the first draw of the weekend.

At Bulimba second place Moggill pay a visit where it will be very tense indeed, as the Eagles are now perilously close to relegation, again it has all the earmarks of a draw.

In the night matches, two teams who have lost their way of late meet with Margate's hosting of Ipswich City, and whilst a semi position is not out of reach completely, they are perilously close to the wrong end of the table, this match looks more like a home win.

Fourth placed Annerley entertain near neighbors Darra, and with the recent rich vein of form running through the home side, I can't see other than a win for the Ekibin team.

The remaining night match is between current leaders North Pine and Redcliffe, I can't see the peninsula team getting much out of this one.

Sunday's match will be a different kettle of fish, with South Star having a similar ball playing team as their visitors in Brothers United, a win is important for both sides, but I err towards the visitors.

Amateur 2

More wash outs in this division, so the table is not a true reflection, with extra matches in this division being played virtually every Wednesday during July!

This Saturday leaders Jimboomba make the trip up the Jinker Track where their hosts appear to have done their dash for a semi placing this year, the visitor's defensive record will stand them in good stead and they should take home the points. Bethania's trip to Greenbank should also give them a much needed three pointer.

Mooroondu, who picked up their first win in many frustrating games last weekend, have an interesting trip to Park Ridge where the points should remain.

Other match sees two struggling sides meet with Logan City Kings making the trip to Dunlop Park, visitors desperate to get away from tenth spot, and may, if they are lucky, pick up three points, but one at least.

On Sunday, Clairvaux's fourth placing should be even more secure after their visit to Archerfield, whilst second place Goodna should pick up another three pointer at Wilston.

Amateur 3

Another division where postponements galore are making a mockery of the table, Woodridge head the table for the first time this year, but look how many matches are in arrears!

All games are on Saturday with Margate expected to account for Park Ridge, North Pine will have a tough one against Bethania with the visitors expected to come up trumps.

Souths should collect all three points over Oxley, Annerley will need to put last weeks drubbing well and truly behind them in their match against Samford where they should pick up all three points.

Kingsridge will certainly not relish the visit of Eastern Suburbs with the visitors to win. The night match sees current leaders Woodridge making the hike out to Bellbowrie where they should return victorious.

Amateur 4

This table now has a most interesting look at the top, with three teams now only two points apart, any more slip ups and it will be all change, yet again.

Five matches on Friday night with Wynnum expected to account for Newmarket, Lions will be untroubled with the visit of Slacks Creek and The Gap may pick up a rare three pointer on the road to Runcorn.

University should cement their third placing with a win at Capalaba whilst the toughest of the lot will be Mt Gravatt's hosting of Taringa, where it is fully expected the Rovers should be victorious.

Amateur 5

In the four Friday matches Park Ridge would fancy the trip out to Strathpine to pick up at least one point, possibly three, Mitchelton should be victorious in their home win over Redlands, North Star should cement fourth place with a win over Redcliffe whilst Albany Creek may pick up a rare win on the road to bottom marker Souths.

In the Saturday matches Thistle will need to put last week's hiccup behind them in their home match over Samford but should do enough at the end of the day, whilst in the twilight match Brisbane City will retain current first position with a win over the Knights.

Amateur 6

It's all square at the top in this division, yet again, with the two leaders both a match in arrears, it's going to be exciting over the next few weeks!

This Friday Capalaba will have a tough nut to crack with University as their guests but should take the points come 8.15.

Slacks Creek will be looking forward to the trip to North Star to pick up a much needed three points to assist in their quest for fourth place whilst Newmarket will be another one successful on the road to Albany Creek.

In the Saturday matches the Knights will be untroubled with Redlands, Eagles will take all three points at Moggill with Taringa also being successful in their visit to Spencer Park.

Star's rampage continues

The win consolidated their position atop the northern ladder and confirmed the team does not look like stumbling in its quest for this year's premiership.

It also strengthened the side's goal differential at a very delicate time in the season. Now enjoying a 24 goal advantage, ten better than any other side in the competition, it appears reeling in the leaders will be a tough proposition for those sides also vying for the premiership.

Things look even better for the young North Star outfit, with the coach and his players having their eyes on what should be a gift three points against Grange Thistle this weekend.

Although Thistle have shown a bit more mettle over the past few weeks, it would be highly unlikely, given North Star's current form, that they could spring an upset at this stage of the season.

The young Thistle side was gallant in its 3-1 loss to Pine Rivers and some would say they possibly deserved better than a two goal defeat.

However the fact of the matter is that North Star and indeed three other sides including Rivers, are all still vying for the premiership and will be determined not to drop valuable points against the lower sides in the competition.

One thing that will be in Thistle's favour for this weekend's match is that North Star will be coming off what promises to be a bruising mid week encounter with Pine Rivers. That match should be as entertaining as it will be bruising. But with North Star in devastating attacking form, the question remains whether or not Grange will have the firepower up front to match the league leaders.

Busy week for Pine Rivers

Pine Rivers is in for a busy week, with two vital matches set to determine the side's destiny in this year's competition.

With the club desperately attempting to re-enter the Premier League, yet still five points off the lead, this week's matches against North Star and Mitchelton are shaping as the ones which will decide their immediate fate.

"If we get the three points in the catch up game against North Star on Wednesday night, then I think we're a big chance of taking out the premiership," Rivers coach John Rhule said.

"If we lose that match then I think that will be it in terms of the premiership, because I think at this stage, an eight point lead will just be too hard to peg back."

The Rivers coach agreed the assignment would be a tough one, however he refused to write his side off despite the fact they have not been playing to their best in recent weeks.

"We have been getting the results and I wouldn't say we're playing badly, however we have started to fall into the old traps of knocking long balls and falling out of shape a little," Rhule said.

"Because we've got such a young side, at times we have lacked a bit of an on-field director, but I'm confident with every match now so vital to us, the boys will step up a bit and start to take a bit more initiative.

"We have to just take every game at a time. North Star will be the first concern, then we'll look at Mitchelton this weekend. And again, we can't take them too lightly, because they have also been playing fairly well of late."

Rivers will be boosted by the inclusion of experienced keeper Peter Underhill for this weekend's game following a two week layoff with a broken thumb.

NORTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Newmarket treading tightrope

Following a series of mixed results, Newmarket is now in an extremely delicate position attempting to find its way into the fourth and final play-offs spot.

A quick glance at the tables would seem to indicate Peter Carey's side cannot make the play-offs with seven rounds remaining.

However despite being a clear five points adrift of fourth spot, the Newmarket coach and his players haven't given up hope yet, although they admit it will be very difficult task.

"This week's match against The Gap is a very big match for us," Carey said.

"If we win then we're still a faint hope of making the top four, but if we lose I think everyone knows that we're virtually finished for the season.

"All the players know that it's going to be extremely tough to make the play-offs from this position and that we can't afford to lose any more games.

"We pretty much have to win all of our remaining matches to guarantee a finals spot."

That will not be an easy task, with the side still to play North Star, Easts, Albany Creek and Pine Rivers, the top four sides who are at this stage, all in premiership contention.

Even their opposition of this week, The Gap, will be no easy target.

"They've been playing fairly well and they've started to get a few results, so they will be quite tough to beat," the Newmarket coach said.

"We should have a full squad to choose from however and that should make it a little easier for us."

Carey said that if his side did not make this year's play-offs, the club would have to look back at the many opportunities and competition points lost against some of the bottom sides.

Creek bracing for tough match

The Creek boys meet the University of Queensland this weekend, in a match that both sides must win in order to keep their premiership and finals hopes alive.

Albany Creek need the points to maintain their pressure on leaders North Star while Uni is in a desperate bid to make the top four.

"Uni will be very hard to beat this weekend, especially after their good result against Easts," Albany Creek coach Justin Kilshaw said.

"They have got everything to play for now, with the season coming to an end, and they are one of the few sides going around that have a better record against us than we have against them."

Kilshaw said his side's 2-1 Cup victory over the students a fortnight ago had given his players a bit more confidence going into this weekend's match, especially following the news that some of his regulars will be returning to the field.

Last week's 2-0 win over Mitchelton, came on the back of a midweek 1-1 draw with Newmarket and the Albany Creek coach is determined to see his players fight their way out of a somewhat patchy period and develop a bit more continuity as the finals approach.

"We have been overcoming a few injuries and suspensions and although we're pretty happy with the way we've gone, we have only just got ourselves back into a position where we can win the premiership. We haven't finished the job yet and there is still plenty of work to do before it is finished.

"But I'm sure that with our experience and the big match players that we have, we'll be there or thereabouts at the end of the season."

Inala welcomes back its full side

Inala will welcome back its full complement of players when it takes on Acacia Ridge in Sunday's local derby.

After struggling to put a side on the park in last weekend's 6-0 debacle against Slacks Creek, the club looks certain to have five of its regular first team players return this weekend and for coach Bob Maclot it could not be sooner.

"It's been very unfortunate because we had started to gather a bit of momentum and had won five on the trot up until the last two weeks," Maclot said.

"In those two weeks, we've just struggled to get our top side on the park and we've had to make do with many of our reserves and colts players. Unfortunately the club just doesn't have the depth to fill the quality in the top side when it's absent."

The Inala coach agreed that last weekend's 6-0 loss to Slacks Creek was in essence a six point loss as well, with Creek now enjoying a two match breathing space in fourth spot.

"That loss really has hurt us and affected our finals chances because we now have to make up six points to move back into the top four," he said.

Maclot said now that he had his full complement of players back from injuries and suspension, life would get a little easier in his team's struggle to make the top four, however he agreed the task has become somewhat more difficult.

"Now that we've got our top eleven on the park, the confidence in the club has risen heaps and the boys know that they have the ability to make the play-offs and be there at the end of the season," Maclot said.

"But it begins this weekend against Ridge. If we don't win on Sunday, then we'd have to be resigned to finishing in fifth spot."

Slacks & Souths fight for an edge

Slacks Creek and Souths United will be fighting for third spot on the competition ladder when the two sides meet at Slacks Creek this Saturday night.

The two sides hold down third and fourth places on the ladder at present, with Souths on 30 points and Slacks just one point behind them.

The winner of this weekend's encounter will claim outright fourth place on the ladder for the next week at least and possibly gain a slight advantage with finals time fast approaching.

The way the competition is panning out, it is possible though unlikely, that either of these teams may still miss out on a play-offs spot.

Their next nearest rival is Inala way back on 23 points and with seven rounds remaining, teams such as Inala will need not only to win their remaining games but also to have some favourable results go their way.

With two games in hand on the rest of the competition, Souths still have a slight chance of challenging for this year's premiership, although their cause was dealt a savage blow after last weekend's 1-0 loss to Capalaba.

Slacks on the other hand are probably well out of the premiership race having played their full quota of matches to date. For them, this weekend's match will be purely about consolidating their top four position and gaining a psychological edge over Souths prior to the play-offs.

And their form over the past few weeks would seem to suggest thy do have what it takes to be competitive with the big sides in the competition.

A 6-0 win over an understrength Inala outfit last weekend, showed everyone that they can score goals, however question marks still remain over the side's defence which has conceded 39 goals this season, the third highest in the league.

SOUTHERN SEMIPROS AND CONS

Last chance for topsy turvy B'leigh

This weekend will mark one of Beenleigh's final chances of sneaking into an unlikely top four position.

After what has been an amazing roller coaster ride for the former premier league club, it appears as though they still have the slightest of chances of catching up to fourth placed Slacks Creek to steal the last finals berth.

For this to happen however, the Lions not only need a host of matches to go their way, they also must win virtually all of their remaining games.

At present, the side needs to pull back a seven point deficit to reel Slacks Creek in, however they do have a game in hand on the Creekers.

With seven rounds of the competition still remaining, virtually anything is possible but things will have to start this weekend against Capalaba.

Beenleigh really must collect maximum points from this game for two reasons if they are to have any hope of reaching the finals.

Firstly they need the three points and secondly, it would show the other teams above them that they have what it takes to match it with them should they reach the play-off stage.

It won't be easy for the Lions however, with the Bulldogs in fine form at the moment and not really looking like they are about to drop a game to any side in the competition.

Last week they downed third placed Souths 1-0, to put themselves seven points clear in second spot, and keep themselves in touch with ladder leaders Rocklea.

Their premiership hopes are still well and truly alive and it is unlikely they will concede three vital competition points at a stage where they have now become more valuable than gold.

Redlands with tough task ahead

Redlands United will face an uphill battle when they play host to league leaders Rocklea United this Saturday night.

Boasting one of the worst defensive records in the competition, the struggling bayside outfit must come to terms with the team which has the best attacking record in the competition.

Already Rocklea has scored a massive 55 goals this year, whilst conceding just 26. Redlands on the other hand has found the net just 26 times and has conceded a hefty 38 goals in 1999.

With such damning statistics going against Redlands, it is hard to see them troubling the Rocklea outfit this weekend, despite the fact the team is coming off a 1-0 victory against this year's certain wooden spooners Acacia Ridge.

The result, whilst a positive one for the side, was not at all impressive, and with eight points separating them from a top four spot, it is highly unlikely the team will challenge for this year's play-offs.

Rocklea on the other hand have everything to play for and there is little wonder the expectation will be on them this weekend to win and win well.

Just two points ahead of second placed Capalaba their premiership is not yet assured, with Souths United also coming into calculations because of the two matches they have in hand.

With so much at stake, Rocklea cannot afford to drop vital competition points at this late stage in the season because there are now only seven rounds from which they would be able to make those points up.

That will be well in the back of the minds of the Rocklea players during this weekend's encounter and it would be a surprise to see them go down or even be held to a draw.

Miss Soccer Quest gets hotter

The Ipswich Knights are well represented by Antionette Maccarone who is finishing her diploma of Community Services at Bremer Tafe.

The link with the club comes through her sister Renee whose boyfriend Trent Scott plays in the Reserves. Trent's brother Clint plays in the first team.

A multitude of raffles, Karaoke nights and an Ipswich Cup evening have all contributed to the piggy bank for the club. A ladies night to be held at the club is planned for the near future.

Should a decision be made as to where to go for an overseas trip, then Antionette would take Mum back to Palermo in Sicily to visit family. A stopover in Rome on the way home to do a bit of shopping wouldn't go astray.

The 18 year old use to play netball when she lived in Wagga Wagga but since moving to the sunshine state and gong to the Knights games each weekend, netball has become the loser.

A former Clairvaux player herself until injury forced her retirement, Amanda has been busy with raffles and an FA Cup night to raise funds for her club.

Recently engaged to Clairvaux player Michael Clark, the couple intend to wed in September 2000.

The thought of winning the first prize of international air travel is both pleasing and daunting. Amanda is petrified of flying.

However it would make a wonderful honeymoon for her and Michael should she win.

A Member of the Game of his life an honour

"Yes, yes, yes, yes and in case you misunderstand me, yes," was the reply that Mark Shield gave to Soccer Australia when asked if he was available to referee a Socceroos and Manchester United clash.

It will be the pinnacle of the Queenslander's refereeing career, when he steps onto the revered MCG to take control of the game this Thursday.

Born in Rockhampton in 1973 and first playing for the Silkwood Tigers in Innisfail and then St Francis in Ayr, Shield decided when 15 he enjoyed being a referee.

"I was only an average player so I decided to give playing away and continue refereeing which I had started when I was 12," said Shield.

Local Innisfail referees Norm Millard and Dr. Jimmy Hill were instrumental as his first instructors and at the age of 16, Shield found himself in control of his first senior match in Townsville's Division 3. Shield remembers one of the captains saying, "Take it easy on the Ref, he's only a young fella".

On finishing school at Ayr State High, Shield attended the University of Central Queensland in Rockhampton and spent three years completing his Bachelor of Business while continuing to referee CQ senior fixtures.

At the end of 1993 he was appointed to the National Youth League Referees panel. That Christmas, Shield moved closer to the action and took up residence in Brisbane.

He continued officiating in the Youth league and also refereed the 1995 Queensland Premier League grand final.

"It was an honour to get the Grand Final," Shield said.

"So many great Queensland referees had done the job in the past, like Bill Monteverde and Des Miles."

An appointment to the National League in 1995 saw Shield step up to the big time and control his first ever national league game - Sydney United v West Adelaide.

"It was really nerve racking," Shield said.

"But it was exciting at the same time."

Shield's first international experience came at the age of 23, when during the first Optus World Soccer series held at Suncorp Stadium in Brisbane, he controlled the Norway v New Zealand game.

This was also the year that the Brisbane Strikers took out the championship and Shield watched every minute of the action.

"I had the best seat in the house, I was reserve referee," he said.

However it was December 1998 that will always be remembered by Shield. You see it was Christmas Eve when the postman delivered a most desirable Christmas present.

"I nearly crash tackled the postman when he stopped at the letter box," Shield said.

"I had been told two days earlier that my FIFA badge was in the mail."

What made it more special was his parents, Alan and Rhonda were staying with him when it arrived.

Some 19 years since blowing his first whistle and only the second time controlling a Socceroos game, the 25 year old is looking forward to the match of his life.

"Refereeing the Socceroos at any time is special," Shield said.

"Being at the MCG makes it more special and then add Manchester United the world's best club, it becomes extra special.

"It will be an honour to referee this game."
