IPSWICH WANTS SEMI

Ipswich United are to lobby the Queensland Soccer Federation Management Committee to have their Ampol Cup semi-final against Across the Waves played at Ebbw Vale.

And the Coalminers have a strong argument to back their claims. The Ampol Cup over the past few years has been an endless trek around Queensland for the Ipswich side.

According to Ipswich officials it seems each time a venue is allocated the QSF management committee opts for a country match or Perry Park.

"We can guarantee as good a crowd, and probably a bigger one than any other venue." an Ipswich official said this week.

A quick look at the past two years shows that Ipswich have had to play key matches away. Two years ago the club's extensive lobbying fell on deaf ears and the Cup final was played in Townsville. It was only that the match ended in a draw that replay was played at Ebbw Vale — and in front of a good crowd.

Last year in the semi-finals Ipswich again had to travel and played and lost to Across the Waves in Bundaberg.

And in this year competition Ipswich have been on the move again and in their last game played at Perry Park.

"It is difficult for a lot of our supporters to get to Brisbane and others just won't go there. Whenever we play at Perry Park we only bring about 200 people," an official said.

Whether Ipswich will be successful in their bid remains to be seen but one thing that is certain, the continuing success of first division teams like Acacia Ridge and possibly Mount Gravatt is causing increasing headaches for the QSF.

Both teams are on the Pools coupons and their First Division fixtures cannot be altered until an exemption is received. And that could cause delays to the whole competition.

TOWNSVILLE TROPIC TOPICS

They're an optimistic mob up Townsville way . . . . Despite talk that this year will be the last of the State League under the present structure and regionalisation is a certainty, Kern officials including coach Ken Worden and vice-president Ray Ringert have been busy trying to secure sponsors for next season.

"You have to start acting now for next season and it is too late to begin looking for something next March when you suddenly find competition is still going on," Worden said.

"We are still looking towards playing in the national competition so we have to plan ahead."

And it seems the forward thinking of the Townsville United club is winning over the men with the money and according to Worden there are some "promising" leads on sponsorship.

What do Townsville Kern players do in their spare time? Well goalkeeper Phil Figgins and his wife Sarah will be occupied with their new daughter Katherine, or Kate as they intend to call her. Kate came bouncing into the world at 6lb 12oz and certainly brightened up the week for Phil, who had earlier had 26 stitches put in a wound after a piece of mesh fell on him on a building site. There was happy news for Townsville striker Bob McGuiness recently when he announced his engagement to Melbourne girl, Lyn Stucke. Congratulations to Phil and Sarah and Bob and Lyn!

This weekend's Ampol Cup clash with Mount Gravatt is certain to be one of the highlights of the Townsville soccer calendar and even more of an event if the home side wins. And Ken Worden's boys won't hear of anything else.

"We haven't been playing well but have been still winning but our form will change this weekend and I think we are going to really hit our straps," Worden said.

Worden is believed to have spent nearly eight hours of work in training recently on Jim O'Donnell and Frank Houston and now rather than knocking long balls the pair will come much more into a total team style of play.

WARREN ROCKETS TO A MYER COMPETITION LEAD

Ipswich United defender Wayne Warren has rocketed to the lead in the Myer Stores State League player of the year competition.

After the latest count, which was up to and including Round 10, Warren had amassed 18 votes to lead Peter Tyson of Across the Waves on 16, Ken Swan of Capricornia on 15 and two players on 14, John Wilkinson of Capricornia and Bob McGuiness of Townsville.

Warren's points tally surely is a reflection of his consistent performances in the Ipswich line-up over recent weeks. At the last tally after Round 5, Warren had only seven points which means in five matches he has averaged a little more than two points a game in the 3, 2, 1 voting — a remarkable and brilliant effort.

But there are still plenty of votes available for all players before the end of the season and the first prize of a $1500 open order from Queensland Myer Stores Limited is still wide open.

In all there are 114 players who have been given votes by opposition coaches since the first round and that works out to nearly every player in each of the 10 State League teams.

Another tally will be released at the conclusion of the 14th round then the votes will be kept secret until the big announcement of the winner at the end of the season.

NEWS FROM VALLEY TRIDENT UNITED SOCCER CLUB

Valleys are out of the Ampol Cup, after a loss to Acacia Ridge, but get the chance to prove a point when they play one of the semi-finalists in Ipswich United at Perry Park this weekend.

The first round fixture between these two teams was a tough affair up at Ebbw Vale and as the top five teams battle for the four semi-final positions, this match is likely to be a real bone-cruncher.

Valleys have been going through a slight inconsistent patch of late but the top opposition Ipswich are certain to provide will no doubt bring out the best in the Blues.

In the match against Acacia Ridge, our old First Division rivals, Valleys turned in a lack lustre performance and the Ridge ran all over us. We seemed to be waiting for them to stop running but when they hit the lead they just didn't. Their second goal was a real disaster with a mix-up between Dave Melia and Martin Coe but it gave them the edge to hang on in the last 20 minutes, despite a continuous Valleys onslaught, to win 2-1.

The loss came after our rather unconvincing win against Twin Towns, probably the worst side we have played this season. The Valley Trident team onld did enough to win the match and the real tragedy for us was the loss of defender Mickey Hayes.

Hayes left the field with a badly broken thumb, after he fell awkwardly, and required an operation last Thursday. According to the latest reports Hayes could be out for as much as six weeks, which unfortunately is just about the end of the season.

The best part of the match was Valleys' first goal, a great shot by Frank Mengotti after a fine pass from Hayes. Mengotti was involved in Valleys' second goal, in the second half, when he hit a cracking drive which rebounded off the Twin Towns keeper for Tom Pike to sidefoot in.

In the last 20 minutes Valleys hammered at the Twn Towns goal and hit the woodwork at least four times but couldn't add to their tally.

A special mention for Trident midfielder Dennis Lockhart who played Geminis' top scorer Cliff Calley out of the match.

The SEQL side played a 1-1 draw with Twin Towns. Valley Trident was leading 1-0 but had a brilliant goal by Dave Melia, after a cross from Ian Gentles, disallowed on a linesman's ruling. Twin Towns broke immediately from the freekick and equalised.

The match of the weekend involved the Trident Fourth Division side which had a great 6-3 victory over South Star. They beat us by a big score in the first round so it was pleasing to turn the tables. The win was largely thanks to a brilliant effort by Romano Naderic, our under 13 team coach, who hit four great left-foot goals. But overall it was a great team performance and a credit to coach Donny McDonald.

Our Seventh Division lost 1-5 to Albany Creek but the real tragedy of the weekend was the loss by forfeit of our Senior Colts side to Acacia Ridge. The side, which previously had been top of the table and undefeated, turned up at the ground at the wrong time and subsequently the loss of points and the 0-3 result pushed them down the tightly packed table.

Miss Valleys entrant Manuela is holding a fund-raising disco night at the club this Friday night, July 30. The evening starts at 7.30 and everyone is welcome.

A FIRST FOR MOUNT GRAVATT?

Mount Gravatt this weekend are out to break their North Queensland hoodoo and beat Townsville at the Sports Reserve for the first time ever.

The closest the Brisbane side has ever come to taking both points was a 2-2 draw in 1979 but the Mounts new coach Eric Thomson believes this season he has the side not only to beat Townsville at home but to go on to take the Ampol Cup.

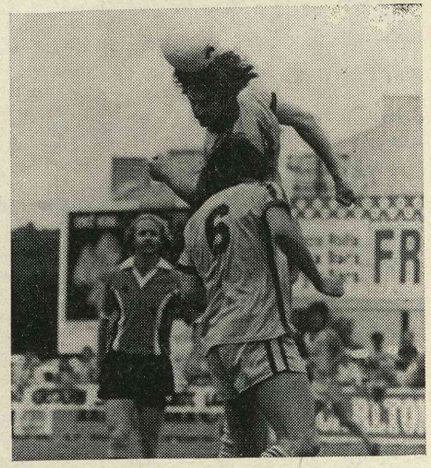
"We are playing tremendous open football. We are a much more balanced each other. We tend not to play in set teeam before with everyone working for positions but combine in one attacking, open style", Thomson said.

Thomson said the only special plans he would make for the Townsville match would be a "few adjustments" to take into the account the small field.

"I have not watched Townsville this season and I am actually not interested We play the type of game where they have to watch out for us", he said.

Thomson's only worry if that his skilful players like Russell Stewart, Jim McIntyre, a Townsville junior, and John Reid get the proper protection for the referee.

"We have been kicked off the park in some matches in Brisbane but if our players are given fair treatment we will show the Townsville public some of the best football they will see all sesason," he said.



Former Townsville defender Dave Costa returns to the Sports Reserve back in the colours of Mount Gravatt, where he played all his football before he went on loan last season.

THE EYE ON IPSWICH

by Jacki Randa

A shoot-out in the recent event of a draw and a sin-bin are some of the features of the Hoffman Industrial Cup which is now in progress in Ipswich.

The Cup is a social competition for workers in Ipswich and is developing into one of the most hotly contested trophies in the city.

Mr. Clem Hoffman, of Hoffman Enterprises of Dinmore, is the sponsor of the Cup and has seen the competition grow from 12 teams last year to 17, competing in two divisions this season.

The standard of competition last year was quite high and organisers are anticipating an equivalent standard this season.

The rivalries between the various teams has its roots in early Ipswich history, when the different coalmine pits fought for soccer supremacy. Although the domination of pit workers in senior Ipswich sides has waned, the interest in soccer is still there as players from yesteryear discuss the old days over the billy at lunch and smoko breaks, and rivalries between pits can still be detected.

Another facet of Ipswich history is the railways workshops and the intense competition between Ipswich and Redbank. The rivalry is evident when a match between the two workshops is announced and long queues form of volunteers hoping to wear a jersey of their respective workshop colours.

The Hoffman Cup now provides all businesses and industries within the Ipswich area to settle those rivalries on the soccer field. It gives the players of yesteryear and those interested in the code with a chance to actually be involved and also gives the supporters of the respective teams the opportunity to air their knowledge and tell the players what they should or should not have done on the field.

The matches within the competition are played in two halves of 25 minutes with no extra-time. In event of a draw a penalty shoot out under FIFA rules is conducted.

Players can be sent to the sin-bin for various offences and teams are allowed an unlimited number in the squad and can make any number of substitutions, providing each player is employed by the respective company.

All matches are played at St. Helens' ground at Ebbw Vale. The teams that are involved this year include Kerbank United, New Hope Colliery, Ipswich Railway Workshop, Redbank Railway Workshop, Darra Cement, Southern Cross Colliery, Ipswich Railway Porters, Rhonda Colliery, Oakleigh Collery, Hardboards, Thorne Furniture, Westfalen Colliery, Haenke Colliery, Queensland Times and Besser Tiles.

Matches which are coming up include: Friday, July 30 — Redbank II v Thorne Furniture, 6 p.m.; Kerkbank v New Hope, 7.15 p.m.; Redbank I v Ipswich Workshop, 8.30 p.m.; Saturday, July 31 — Oakleigh v Hardboards, 1.15 p.m.; Sunday, August 1 — Westfalen v Haenke; Friday, August 6 — Redbank I v Darra, 7.15 p.m. New Hope v Ipswich Workshop, 8.30 p.m.

Scenes like this bring back memories of the dressing rooms of yesteryear and the dominance of Ipswich Coalminers in Queensland soccer. Pictured are Bill Reid (left) and Cliff Howell.

Wolves to Fold

LONDON: One of England's oldest and best known soccer clubs, Wolverhampton Wanderers, owes $4.25 million and is in imminent danger of folding.

Its future could hang on whether the West Midlands County Council is willing to give the club A$3.4 million from its rate collections.

Last minute approaches have been made to the county after Wolverhampton's Labour-controlled council refused to help earlier this week.

It's marvellous what a difference MILO makes

Ken Gordon, on opposite page, to date has scored 14 goals, which is just under one a match. In four of his games he has scored a double, thereby keeping the pressure on Wilson Maelaua. Up to the Taringa match, Wilson had scored one a game since the beginning of the season, but was unlucky on that day. Ken scores his goals with his head. Wilson's head is strictly to keep the hair out of his eyes, his prowess is with the boot. Indeed Ken's form is fast approaching that which won him the Rothman's Gold Medal in 1980.

Our Darts section has recommenced their fixtures. We mentioned earlier they were runiers up in C 2 Grade competition They have since been re-graded into B 5, a jump of 2 grades. Needless to say their opposition is now a bit harder, but we'll say this for them, they're confident. Already they are talking of playing A Grade next year. For the interested, their home matches are on Wednesday nights at Lanham Park, usually every second Wednesday commencing July 21.

Speaking of jumping grades, Thistle's Ladies team moved up from Fourth Division to Third Division this year. They too, have found the move a bit much, having only won one and drawn one match all year. They went to the second round of the knock-out competition, after a replay but then, alas, also got knocked out. Maybe the move was a bit too much, as the team was struggling all year to field the full 11 players, although thirteen were registered. Most matches they only went down by the one or at most two goals. The exceptions, of coures, were when only 8 or 9 players were all they could muster, then the margin was a little bigger. Think positively girls, when you're down, the only way to go is up.

Foot in Mouth Department —

Last week our scribe wrote about the Third Division having a lead of four points. After the weekend's fixtures, this lead was cut to two points. Because copy for Go Soccer is lodged before the weekend, one cannot anticipate the weekend's results. In future we will preface such stories with "At time of writing".

At time of writing, the Third Division has a two point lead. This weekend's fixture will be the cruncher. Away to Kingsridge, the team sitting right on their tail and the team which gave Thistle their first loss of the year, at home as well. What better match to decide the top team of the table. Can Thistle turn the tables and beat Kingsridge at their patch? Watch your Sunday morning paper and see the result for yourself ! ! ! !

GRANGE THISTLE would like to thank these advertisers for supporting soccer. We urge our supporters to support them.

RIDGE REPORTING

AMPOL CUP

ACACIA RIDGE 2 d VALLEYS 1

A very good and well deserved win by the Ridge against Valley Trident. The Ridge took the initiative from the kick-off putting the Valley's defence under a lot of pressure. During the first 20 minutes or so and it was not surprising to see them take a 1-0 lead during this period. Dave Armstrong put Nev Cruickshank away down the right, and his cross found Gerry Kay inside the area. Kay wrong footed the defence before shooting past a helpless Martin Coe.

Valey's defence settled down a little better after this and were able to contain the Ridge attack until half-time. At the other end Valleys, due to some good defence by the Ridge, were restricted to shooting from well outside the Ridge penalty area. One good shot from Gerry Lindsay was well saved by keeper Farrow. He again was called upon to make a great save just before the break from a crashing drive by, I think it was Dennis Lockhart.

Ten minutes into the second half an awful mix-up between Martin Coe and Dave Melia let in Nev Cruickshank to make it 2-0 to the Ridge. Valleys hit back 3 minutes later when Melia floated in a free kick from the right where Tommy Pike was waiting to head home past the advancing Farrow to make it 2-1 which was to be the final score. But not before the Ridge gave Valleys a few frights, where as Pike's header was the only time keeper Farrow was tested in this half.

Valleys only had themselves to blame for this as they controlled the midfield throughout the game and should have done a lot more up front with this possession. But all credit to the Ridge defence who played well with Proud and Bell winning the ball well in the air and Mel Evans tidying up well as sweeper. Last but not least, Dave Armstrong, making his debut in the first team, had an outstanding game.

FIRST DIVISION

A. RIDGE 2 drew with MITCHY 2

This was a game the Ridge should have had sewn up at half-time had they taken their chances and had a little luck. Luck was on their side after 10 minutes when a cross from John Gillespie was headed down by Norm Bell. In an attempt to clear the ball Mitchie defender Dobson put past his own keeper. Luck was for the Ridge in the 16th minute when Mel Evans cleared off the line for the Ridge after keeper Rob Farrow had dropped the ball. Mitchie had their share of good fortune too clearing a header from Cruickshank off the line after 26 minutes and Gillespie having what looked like a certain goal cleared away just before half-time.

Just after the break Steve Gallagher went close with a header. Mitchie now started to get into the game and it took a good save by Farrow to keep them out with a Garth Jones effort. Jones again hit the cross-bar in the 62 minute with a fine shot from 25 metres. Mitchie levelled the score shortly after when Farrow was disposed and the lad made no mistake with his shot. Gallagher again went close for the Ridge with a header from a Dave Armstrong cross. With 9 minutes left Mitchie took the lead when keeper Farrow mishandled the ball and Jones was on hand to punish him. This goal looked

by Bill Williams

FIRST DIVISION

EASTS 2 d ANNERLEY 0

Just before the kick off, down came the rain. It mightn't have worried the players too much but it sure made it unpleasant for the spectators. Easts took the lead after 20 minutes when they broke down the left and the far post cross was a good one, leaving a simple header from close in. The first half belonged to Easts and they deserved their goal lead at the break. Probably our best chances had come when Neil Catchpole came through the centre only to have his shot deflected, and when Brian Lampitt's header from Wayne Cook's cross was just held by the home keeper. Our passes were often astray and we were not judging the pace of the slippery ball.

Pressure in the second half saw the referee award a doubtful penalty to Easts. Although the ball entered the net, the kick was retaken due to an attacker's infringement and our keeper, John Di, turned the second shot round the post. An even second half turned to disaster for us when Bruce Rehbock scored at his second attempt to put the home side 2-0. This was the final score, but in our defense we have several players carrying injury for most of the match.

Missing from our defensive line in this match was dependable Phil Hall. His excuse is reasonable though, as at 4p.m. he was married to Leslie Kay Arkinstall Leslie herself plays ladies soccer with our club and they both are solid workers for us. There was a story going round that Phil wanted to play until halftime but was talked out of it. (I think by Leslie). Anyway we all wish them every possible happiness for their future together.

RESERVES

EASTS 2 d ANNERLEY 1

Against the second top team on their home ground, this game obviously would not be easy, but for the first 30 minutes we had more chances than our opposition. However they took the chance when it offered and sored from close in to take the lead, which they held until half time.

Straight after the break, our bad luck continued when Easts defender saved off the line from Roy Smith's header, with the keeper well beaten. Easts raids down the park brought further success when one back for us from the penalty spot. they scored again, but David Crane got Try as we might we could not get an equaliser and we lost by that odd goal. It was a game from which we deserved at least a point on the percentage of play basis.

Well this weekend was certainly a disaster for our club, for, with the exception of our Colts who had a bye, we lost all games; The 7th going down once again, to Nerang 2-1 (after losing 3-0 to Acacia Ridge last week) and the 4th Division going down 3-0 to Virginia. The game last week ended 0-0 and the coach Rex Evans said the least said about it the better, wonder what he said about this weeks?

MORE RIDGE REPORTING

like the winner but within a minute the score was 2-2 when a bustling run by Gallagher in the Mitchie area enabled him to shoot past the keeper.

Due to commitments I missed the early game in which the Ridge downed Mitchie 2-0 with goals from Johny Miller and a penalty from Scott Evans.

At this point I would like to thank all the people concerned for their wonderful gesture on Saturday when asked to donate to a fund to send one of our junior players away with the Queensland team later this season after his parents, who have a large family, were unable to do so themselves — which makes me firmly to believe rep football is quickly becoming a thing for the rich. Altogether $200 was raised for this lads trip. "Magic"

Last of all a member of my club took his son to Rep training last Monday week. He went into the Clubhouse for some liquid refreshment and in doing so asked the Barman why the T.V. was not on for the World Cup Replay. The Barman replied saying no-one is interested in that rubbish. The place was Perry Pk. — QSF Headquarters I think.

MITCHELTON STABLE TALK

by Stable Hand

FIRST DIVISION

MITCHY 2 drew with ACACIA RIDGE 2

This was a good test for everyone's temperament. It rained heavily, it was cold enough in the rain to catch pneumonia, pilots continually flew over practising emergency landings and we had a confused referee who awarded a freekick to one team while pointing for the other — which I thought was the correct way.

They were fortunate to open the scoring in the 8th minute when a freekick took a deflection and despite a valiant attempt to clear it, it hit the net behind the upright. Good cover from Mike Glahsen and Lee Grice denied them twice but this was typical of our game. We never gave up and played good positive football.

Garth Jones had a shot cleared in the seventh minute of the second half but after several near misses, including a Jones bar-bender, Mark Cruse won a challenge with the keeper for Richard Puttock to put away for the equaliser in the 65th minute.

Dave Gallagher denied them when they came back from the restart then seven minutes from fulltime a well taken free-kick by John Coffey rebounded and Jones put away a top drive. They came back from the restart and in a scramble made it 2-2. A top game with them glad and fortunate to take a point. Bob Dobinson is settling in well.

RESERVES

ACACIA RIDGE 2 d MITCHELTON 0

If an Oscar for soapies in soccer was awarded this game would take it for the performance of the main actor — he was the one directing traffic. I know there is a shortage of referee but it is hard to play good football with the advantage being denied and disregard for linesmen's decisions.

On chances we should have been in front at half time but the match was scoreless. They scored an easy goal seven minutes into the second half and five minutes later Lex Robins was unlucky not to equalise off a cross from Paul Fagan. Two minutes later Lex had their keeper stretching with an overhead shot.

Then came the rain . . . .

Top backing up by Bill Ireland denied them another goal when the linesman signalled a free kick to us and the referee awarded them a penalty. That made it 2-0. We had two players who were later taken to hospital for treatment.

FOURTH DIVISION

MITCHELTON 2 d TARINGA 0

We were unlucky not to score in the second minute then we saw them nearly score five minutes later but Noel Imison was equal to the awkward bounce. Twenty minutes later a freekick was laid off by Jim Mills for David Stubbs to score. A minute later Graham Ellis put one wide and after some good build up were unlucky not to score again before lemons.

Two minutes into the second half they were unlucky not to score off a cross while Greg Hedger was also unlucky not to head in a corner. Twenty minutes later Stubbs scored from a Murray Turner cross. With only nine minutes to go Noel frightened us but recovered to save well before the line. Two minutes later Turner put one wide and they had a chance which really didn't test our keeper. The referee did well in this match.

SEVENTH DIVISION

TARINGA 1 d MITCHELTON 0

We have played better than this but it took a defensive error for their only goal in the 20th minute. They nearly scored again after Ian Walsh made a good save then a shot from the corner was blocked by their own player. Ian had a busy game while Drew MacDonald was unlucky not to get an equaliser.

SENIOR COLTS A

MITCHELTON 1 d LIONS 0

An ardent supporter summed it up when he said "A great day". We had three officials in black, both teams played football and Mitchy played as a team and won. The winning goal came from a 25m shot by Greg Tucker after a spell of pressure on Lions. They had cleared Greg's first shot but he put it back over the keeper.

THE DARRA DATELINE

by 'The Maltese Falcon'

FIRST DIVISION

GOODNA 2 d DARRA 1

Twenty minutes of Bob Wilson gave Goodna two valuable points from Darra when these two teams clashed recently.

Darra's increasing injury list became bigger from this match by the unfortunate accident to keeper Jeff McIlwaine and field players Wayne Collins and Mick Jones. But this could NOT be used as an excuse for Darra's defeat.

It took only seven minutes for veteran Bob Wilson to set Goodna alight. From a good corner Wilson's header floated just under the crossbar and although McIlwaine made a good effort to stop it, it was not to be. As a result of McIlwaine's effort he landed awkwardly and badly damaged his hand.

Darra replied 10 minutes later when an Ian Robbins corner found Wayne Collins unmarked and he in turn made a good job of finishing it off with a good shot. But five minutes later Wilson again received a good through ball and he survived a John Vankervoort tackle to run through and slip the ball past advancing McIwaine to put Goodna in front again.

At this stage McIwaine was replaced in goal by Harry Bown, much to the relief of Goodna's defence as Bown had been playing striker. For the rest of the half both defences consolidated and with Wilson's condition slowly running out, so did Goodna's attack.

In the second half both teams tried, Darra in fact pushed everything forward, but Goodna played a stacked defence and it was enough to hold onto for two points.

Best performers for Goodna were John Toner, Terry Madden and 20 minutes of Bob Wilson. Darra were best served by Wayne Collins (man of the match), Ian Seeley and Steve Travis and a good effort from Mick Jones, who played a full reserve game and then came on 15 minutes after kick-off to put in another good game.

RESERVES

Darra Reserves continued their good run with a resounding 3-0 victory over Goodna. From the start they never looked like being beaten and they seemed fitter and sharper than their opponents. It wasn't long before Darra scored and it came through an overlap by fullback Simon Butterworth. He sent in a good cross to find Dave Haggart on the spot to finish it off with a fine header.

Just before halftime Mick Jones scored a great goal and then right on the whistle the Goodna fullback would have to be the luckiest player not to get a card for a vicious tackle on Dave Haggart. Yet again the referee turned a blind eye when so close to the incident.

In the second half the game died somewhat. Darra scored again through Ricky McCormack and like I said we were worthy winners. Most outstanding for Goodna was Roddy McKenzie (who is still playing well) while for the winners Chris Butterworth, Trevor Thomson and Mick Jones gave 100 percent effort in a Darra team that had no favorites.

A special thanks to Goodna supporters and players for supporting Darra at their function on Saturday night and a great night was had by all, including the few from Acacia Ridge who we were delighted to see attend.
