Cover: Wynnum's Owen Filewood puts the pressure on Bundaberg's goalkeeper Michael Bainbridge when the two teams met last weekend for Round 2 of the Queensland Cup. It was a fruitless trip for the Waves as Wyynum ran out the victors 2-0 making the trip home a quiet event.

Editorial

Firstly to Queensland Cup action and last weekend saw some interesting games from Round 2 of this year's competition.

Amateur Division 1 side Margate almost managed the unthinkable in their game against Premier League supremo's Taringa Rovers at Jack Speare Park.

With the match locked at 2-all well into the second half, it looked as though Margate could possibly pull off the upset of the year by upstaging their more fancied rivals.

However, the Taringa lads clicked into gear late in the match and struck a further four goals into the back of the Margate net, with Strikers import Des Hughes amongst the goals once again.

From all reports, special mention should go to Margate keeper Brendan Hunt who had an outstanding game for the visitors.

Time and again he thwarted the Taringa hot shots with some deft keeping and caused much angst among the likes of Richard Hilli, Ben Wood and Des Hughes.

In the only match played between two Premier League teams, Wynnum got the better of the Bundaberg Waves with a 2-nil victory at Carmichael Park.

This week, we return to regular league action and the Premier League is hotting up midway through the season.

Rochedale will be looking to hang onto top spot on the league ladder when they host the Gold Coast, who have been in sparkling form of late.

And Brisbane Lions will be hoping to get their season back on track when they travel to Carmichael Park to play the Wynnum Wolves.

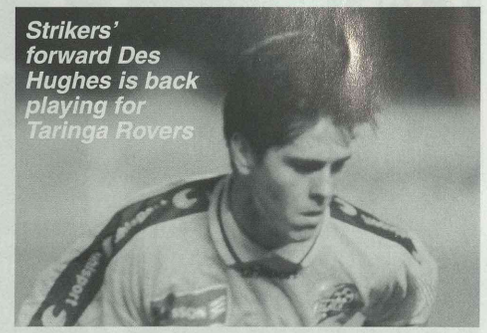
Finally this week, apologies to Andy Brayshaw from Mt Gravatt. In last week's edition, Eye on Soccer inadvertently misreported that Andy was under suspension for Round 2 of the Queensland Cup.

The way it was in Round 12

Bundaberg were the only Premier league team to lose in the weekend's round of Queensland Cup games, suffering a 2-0 defeat at the hands of their Premier League partners Wynnum.

In a weekend fairly free of upsets, Souths United provided the biggest shock, upsetting previously undefeated Semipro division one south leaders Rocklea.

Rocklea had won 10 of their 11 games this season, blasting an incredible 44 goals past their hapless opposition. Souths United, third on the Semipro south tables, won a thrilling game 3-2.



Strikers' forward Des Hughes is back playing for Taringa Rovers

Of the Premier League teams, Brisbane City were stretched by neighbours Newmarket before edging to a 2-1 win.

Taringa Rovers were given a scare by Margate, locked at two-all in the second half before scoring four goals to run out 6-2 winners.

Strikers star Des Hughes was among the goals for Taringa.

Gold Coast continued their recent return to form with a 6-0 dismantling of struggling Mitchelton and Brisbane Lions bounced back from their loss to Rochedale, taking care of Oxley United with an emphatic 6-0 win.

Toowoomba United got their season back on track with a 5-1 thumping of Samford and Rochedale Rovers, resting several big names, thrashed Redlands 6-0.

In other games, the Ipswich Knights won 3-0 against North Pine and Mt Gravatt edged Capalaba 2-0 in a tight game.

Semipro division one north strugglers Grange Thistle finally tasted some joy, notching only their second win of the season with a 4-0 defeat of Park Ridge.

North Star, leaders of Semipro division one north, were lucky to escape with a 2-1 win over amateur division one side Brothers and Uni of Qld defeated Acacia Ridge 2-1.

In other games, Moggill United won 3-0 against Clairvaux, Albany Creek continued their good start to the year with a 6-1 win against Annerley and Bayside United scored a tough 2-1 win over Jimboomba.

QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT

PREMIER PREVIEW - Rochedale Rov v Gold Coast City

Rochedale Rovers, freshened after a big win over Redlands United at the weekend, are intent on defending top spot on the Premier League table against the Gold Coast.

The last time the two sides met, Rochedale were in devastating form, knocking seven goals past a hapless Gold Coast.

However striker Clayton Koch expects the Coast to put up more of a fight this weekend, with the club's future secure and their pride at stake.

Koch, a former National League player, has scored two goals this season as Rochedale have charged to the competition lead.

"Everything just went right for us that night," Koch said of his club's 7-0 win over Gold Coast earlier this year.

"This is a danger game for us. We have to be on our toes. It will be a tough match."

The Gold Coast are starting to find the form that had them challenging for top spot on the ladder earlier in the year.

They thrashed Mitchelton 6-0 at the weekend in the Queensland Cup and the addition of striker Peter Dwyer has given the side extra firepower up front.

Dwyer has been hailed as a saviour by the Gold Coast press and scored two goals in his first appearance with the Coast. But the former state striker can expect a tough challenge from the Rochedale defence.

Rochedale are coming off a great win over Brisbane Lions and backed that up with their thrashing of Redlands in the Queensland Cup.

Koch, fellow striker Kieran Cooper, midfielder David Pilic and Harris were all rested against Redlands, either not playing or coming off the bench.

"Probably the first 20 minutes against Lions was our worst we've played for a while," Koch said.

"We just hung in there. In most games this year we've dominated the match. Against Lions we didn't really dominate."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Mt Gravatt v Ipswich K'ts

Knights coach Frank Pimblett is looking for more goals from his midfield as he looks to maintain his side's outstanding start to the season this weekend against Mt Gravatt.

The Knights were sitting in third place prior to Wednesday night's catch-up game against the Gold Coast.

Despite their high position on the ladder, they had scored only 17 goals in 11 games, the second worst attacking record in the league.

The Knights defence has kept it in games, conceding only 14 goals this season.

They face a Mt Gravatt side with the opposite problem. Mt Gravatt has had no problem scoring goals but plenty of problems conceding them.

Knights striker Peter Vogler is among the league's leading scorer but their midfield has barely worried the scorers, with Brenley Jefferd and Damien Conquest yet to hit the back of the net this year.

"Only Toowoomba has scored less goals than us," a worried Pimblett said. "That's kind of a concern. We're not scoring enough goals.

"We have to score more goals and it has to come from everyone.

"I am looking for more from BJ and Damien. Both of them have a tremendous amount of ability and with the ability they have got, they have to get more goals.

"That's my biggest worry as a coach. "

The Knights were held to a one-all draw by Toowoomba in their last league game but pounded three goals past North Pine at the weekend.

The club was held scoreless at half-time and, much to Pimblett's joy, didn't concede any goals once they had hit the front.

"We didn't create that much (against Toowoomba)," Pimblett said. "That was probably my main concern.

"The previous two games against Brisbane City and Toowoomba we have conceded a goal straight after we scored.

"That's something we have to address."

PREMIER PREVIEW - Wynnum Dist v Brisbane Lions

Brisbane Lions may yet join other Premier League clubs and delve in the player market as they look to continue their good start to the Premier League season.

Several clubs have strengthened their ranks since the end of the National League season. But Lions coach Miron Bleiberg has resisted the temptation, preferring to rely on his talented and deep squad.

The experienced coach hasn't ruled out picking up some players as his side goes into this weekend's crunch match at Wynnum.

Lions will be without key midfielder Darren Hillier for the game, after the former national league playmaker was ruled out by doctors for six weeks with a back injury.

Lions had a solid 6-0 win over Oxley at the weekend in the Queensland Cup following on from their loss to Rochedale in the last round of the Queensland Cup.

"I believe that a side like Lions are not the type of side which can lose two (Premier League) games in a row," Bleiberg said.

"After the Rochedale game we were a bit frustrated. We attacked and they scored, we attacked and they scored.

"The result didn't reflect the events on the field. That's what's frustrating. The players feel the same.

"I think Wynnum will pay the consequences for the result."

Wynnum have been steadily improving under coach Peter Tokesi since the start of the year.

They scored a 2-0 win over Bundaberg in the Queensland Cup at the weekend and have been making a steady climb up the Premier League ladder.

Striker Scott Rocker is among the league's leading scorers but that good recent form faces its stiffest test against Lions, who have midfielder Cameron Watson back to cover for the loss of Hillier.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Toowoomba Utd V Brisbane City

Toowoomba coach Gary Scott believes if his players do the right thing this weekend against Brisbane City, there's no reason why they can't win the game.

Toowoomba found some scoring touch at the weekend with a 5-1 win over Samford.

Scott has experimented with local youngster Colin Hackwood in partnership with Craig McConnell on his forward line.

That gives the Toowoomba side one of the tallest front lines in the league.

City have been hot and cold in the league this year and Scott believes his side is ready to continue City's run of cold.

"I think we'll just play hard," Scott said. "They haven't been going well and they're a bit down on confidence.

"If we ever have to meet them this is the time. Obviously saying that they'll figure this is the time to turn the corner.

"I think it will be an entertaining game."

City share fourth place on the table with Taringa but were pushed all the way by Annerley at the weekend in their Queensland Cup game.

The defending premiers look to be still finding a way to fight their way out of the dreaded premiership hangover which has plagued their season.

Toowoomba, on the other hand, have been acclimatising to life in the Premier League and have been improving with each outing.

"It will be a tough game. But I felt the Ipswich game was a tough game and a real test of character," Scott said.

"I felt last time against City we played well and deserved something out of the game.

"We lost 3-1 but I thought we could have won the game.

"With the way things have been going we have been gaining a bit more confidence in the last couple of weeks."

Toowoomba may be without midfielder Gavin Freier, who suffered a neck injury against Ipswich and missed the Queensland Cup game at the weekend.

PREMIER PREVIEW - Taringa Rovers v Bundaberg Waves

Bundaberg, the only Premier League side to lose in the Queensland Cup at the weekend, are looking for a shot of confidence this weekend as they meet Taringa.

Waves have been boosted by the addition of Strikers forward Wayne Knipe and Marconi youth striker Mark Hagger for the match as they look to bounce back from the weekend's disappointing loss to Wynnum.

Hagger has been the National Youth League's leading scorer for the past two years and, along with Knipe, should provide Bundaberg with enough firepower to test Taringa's strong defence.

Bundaberg coach Tony Walmsley has foreshadowed making some changes to his side's approach as they look to fight out of a mini-slump.

"We keep saying that we could have beaten this team or could have beaten that. But we haven't," Walmsley said.

"I've been a bit disappointed with our defence. At the moment we're letting at least two goals in a game and it is making life a bit difficult.

"Consequently we've given leads away too often or been chasing leads."

Taringa welcomed former Strikers forward Des Hughes back at the weekend, as they struggled to put away Margate in the Queensland Cup.

The sides were locked at two-all in the second half before Taringa hit the back of the net four times late in the second half.

Hughes chimed in with a penalty but it was not a performance which would have put a scare through the rest of the sides in the Premier League.

"It's a tough game," Walmsley said of playing Taringa at Jack Speare Park.

"They're coming off a bad bit as much as we are in the league. "But we've beaten them once before."

Lowe, Lippman & Bott - Fair Play award

The award is based on an aggregate of all teams participating in the Premier League in the three divisions.

At present, Gold Coast City lead the table with incredibly no suspensions in the top side or reserves, but it must be said that Gold Coast's figures are tabulated on two teams (as are Bundaberg Waves), while all the others are calculated on the three grades.

Congratulations must be extended to the Bundaberg Waves, Gold Coast City, Ipswich Knights and Rochedale Rovers, in that none of these clubs have had a send-off in the first team. Unfortunately, the Ipswich Knights' downfall is in their Youth Grade where four players have been sent off to date.

We have only played 12 rounds of matches in the Premier League, which is not even halfway, therefore the tables could change again quite dramatically before the season's end.

The QSF is indebted to Lowe Lippman Bott Pty Ltd, for continuing to sponsor this important club trophy which is worth $1,500 to the winner. During the remainder of the season we will continue to publish updated tables, so Premier League clubs may see how good, or bad their players are.

Miss Soccer Quest On Again

By Alexa Zivkovic

The Miss Queensland Soccer Quest is once again underway.

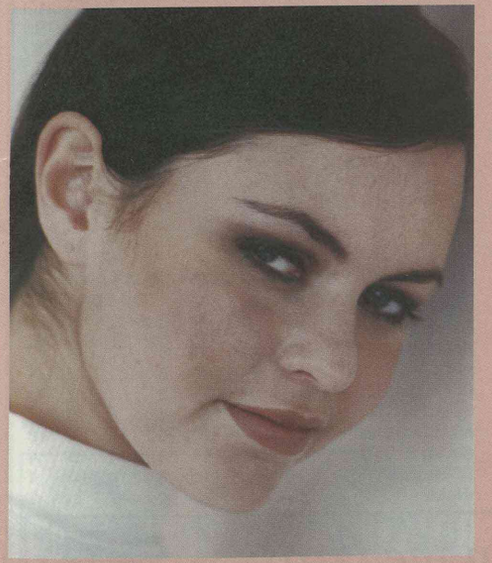
A key annual event on the Queensland Soccer calendar, The Quest provides the opportunity for southeast Queensland soccer clubs to directly benefit from the funds raised by their entrant.

One entrant aged no younger than 16 years, married or single, is selected by each club to take up the challenge.

Miss Queensland Soccer will win airline travel to an international destination of her choice, to the value of $5000, with the runner-up receiving return airfares for two to Sydney.

Miss Queensland Soccer Fund-raiser will also be able to take an overseas vacation, with airline travel to the value of $2500.

Last year's Miss Queensland Soccer, the vivacious Ann-Maree Pantoja, said The Quest is a fabulous experience.



Eastern Suburbs's quest entrant Alison Maxwell will travel to England if she wins

Last year's winner Ann-Maree Pantoja receiving her airline ticket from Guido Canale of Canale Travel

"Not only did it help build my confidence, and introduce me to new friends, it was great to get out there in the community and promote soccer," she said. Ann-Maree used her prize to visit Spain for nine weeks with her family.

One of this year's entrants, Alison Maxwell, who is representing the Eastern Suburbs club, says she would travel to England if she won.

Ironically, the eighteen-year-old is saving already for her own trip to England. Alison works part-time at a leading department store, and also models. Her trip to London would be to promote her modelling career.

Alison's other pursuits include athletics, netball, basketball and she has had a keen interest in soccer since her brother started playing for Eastern Suburbs a few years ago.

She has already organised raffles for every home game at her soccer club, as well as a Fifties Night and is planning to hold a 'Beer and Pizza Night' to further raise funds.

Entries for this year's Quest close on July 16, with the final judging being held at the Italo Australian Centre in Newmarket on August 14.

Last year's entrants collectively raised approximately $194,000 for their clubs.

BEFORE THE WHISTLE

With Jim Gilbert

Being one match short of the half way point, a quick scan through the tables shows some team placings that are in stark contrast to that of a month ago.

Division 1 has North Pine still hanging in but it has now got incredibly tight for the other placings and (dare we say it) Semi Final positions, and, in reality, just about all teams in this division could make the Semi's.

Darra are the big movers in recent weeks and have zoomed up the table to now sit in fourth spot, but it is just so tight. Division 2 has Goodna still sitting four points clear of Jimboomba who suffered their first loss last fixture, but, again, all of the top seven are in with a very good chance of gaining some honors come the season's end.

Division 3 has the leadership changing almost on a weekly rotational basis, and we have a top six all vying for honors, Wynnum in Division 4 still has a 100% record, but they nearly suffered their first loss last week in the Qantas Cup, mind you it was against good opposition with Annerley's Division 1 side, but Wynnum continued on to the next round, albeit on penalties! Realistically five teams will play for Semi positions in this Division, with the rest of them out to make life difficult for these five, Division 5 has two teams neck and neck in Mitchelton and Brisbane City with a further three all tied for third place. Division 6 has an even more fascinating battle for the top three, just look at the closeness of Capalaba - Knights - University, next weekend will prove to be very interesting!

Amateur Division 1

Soccer Pools start in Division's 1 and 2 from this week, so all the overseas people will be looking for draws!

This weekend has all matches on Saturday with the only day match between the two Bayside clubs, Redcliffe and Bayside United, four points the difference between the two teams, with a very similar minus goal difference, not much to choose, could this be the first Pool's score draw?

All the other games are at night with the Annerley v Margate one looming as a make or break for the home side, they are sitting just outside the four and can ill afford another slip, whilst a win to the visitors and they could be considered serious contenders, I still think it will be a win for the hosts, Eagles have South Star as their guests, both sides languishing at the wrong end of the table, and a win to either side will pull them out of trouble, desperation points to the hosts.

After Samford's excursion up to the Darling Downs last week, the last thing they wanted was a visit from Brothers who are playing exceptional football at the moment, this has all the ear-marks of a draw. Leaders North Pine have a resurgent Darra as their guests, and this could be another case of the sharing of points. A very much out of sorts Moggill United make the trip up to Sutton Park also on Saturday night, and, again, a loss for either side could see them drop out of serious contention for the top four, points to remain in Ipswich.

Amateur Division 2

The three Saturday afternoon matches are all tinged with excitement, given the placings of the various teams in the current table.

A very much 'hot and cold' Pine Hills travel to Dunlop Park where it could be a score draw (depending on Oxley's efforts in the Cup) bottom marker Greenbank have Logan City Kings as their visitors, the Kings should get through, but again they are very erratic, whilst the top two teams meet at Jimboomba who will be hosting another free scoring side in Goodna.

Both teams have put away the same number of goals with Goodna's defense marginally better, this will be a taxing match for the hosts, and it would not be at all surprising to see points shared. In the night match Bethania could pick up a valuable three pointer if they can overcome a resilient Clairvaux, it won't be easy but they have the potential to do it.

On Sunday third place Park Ridge will have a lot at stake, and dependent on the previous night's match, outright second could be in their grasp provided they can defeat Wilston at Murray Street, a task that is not beyond them. The remaining match has Mooroondu visiting Archerfield where the hosts are slowly but surly gaining some respectability, on paper the visitors should win, but no one can take Archerfield lightly these days.

Amateur Division 3

On Friday night Kingsridge make the long trek out to Bellbowrie where they could be successful. Remaining matches are all on Saturday with the pick of the bunch Annerley's home game against Margate, when one considers the reverse match will be the last game of the season, there is a lot at stake in this one, points to remain with the hosts. Another top of the table clash takes place at Runcorn with Eastern Suburbs as the visitors, could this be the first loss for Souths? In the other matches North Pine should pick up a rare three pointer over Samford, Woodridge will keep the pressure on the teams above them with a win at Park Ridge whilst Bethania will leave Oxley firmly rooted to the bottom of the table.

Amateur Division 4

Five out of the six matches are being played on Friday night with Wynnum likely to finish the first round with a 100% record picking up another three points at Capalaba, Mt Gravatt will similarly be another winner on the road with a win at Souths, Newmarket will reverse the trend and defeat near neighbours The Gap, similarly Acacia Ridge will retain all three points over visitors Slacks Creek. The pick match of the round will be Lions hosting of Taringa, the loser (if there is one) could drop out of the four, Lions have the better defense, but the Rovers have the better attack, they could negate each other, points to be shared.

On Saturday afternoon University will continue with their claim for second place with a win over the Knights.

Amateur Division 5

Fascinating the points table in this division, the two equal leaders meet each other in three weeks, should be interesting!

Again we have four matches on Friday night with Brisbane City to retain their unbeaten tag with a win at Souths, co-leaders Mitchelton, similarly, should defeat Samford, North Star will be another home winner over the Knights, whilst Redlands should pick up a rare win at the expense of their almost name sake, Redcliffe.

In the Saturday matches there will be wins for Grange over Rivers and Park Ridge over Albany Creek.

Amateur Division 6

On Friday evening Redlands will have a tough one on their hands with Slacks Creek (NB the amended kick-off of 6.30pm) it could be the first draw for both sides, but if three points do go to a team, I tend to think it will head towards the Creek, another close encounter will take place at McCook Park with Eagles as their visitors, the winner will still be contention for a Semi placing, and I err slightly towards the hosts. The length of the table separates Capalaba and Albany Creek, it will be more a question of how many goals Albany Creek can restrict the leaders to. North Star will not enjoy the visit of Taringa, come to that neither will Moggill look forward to Brisbane City's appearance, as in both cases the points will return to the inner suburbs.

The choice match in all of the lower Divisions takes place on Saturday afternoon at Bundamba, between Ipswich Knights and University, where it certainly won't be a day for the faint hearted, both sides have excellent defenses, the Knights slightly ahead in the goal scoring stakes, and to me, that's a pointer as to where the three very valuable match points will finish, i.e. at Bundamba.

Rivers chase win and leaders

Pine Rivers will be looking to close the gap on league leaders North Star when they host the University of Queensland at Wendy Allison Park on Saturday evening.

Approaching the half-way mark of the season, Rivers are in second place on 20 points, four behind division leaders North Star.

And given that North Star also have a game in hand, means that John Rhule's charges will be extra keen to secure maximum points from this match.

One of Rivers strengths this season has been a rock solid defence that has conceded just 11 goals, the second best record in the league behind third placed Eastern Suburbs.

But a few more marks in the "Goals For" column would bring a pleasing smile to Rhule's face and the faithful at Wendy Allison Park will be hoping that the home side's sharp-shooters are on target for the clash.

When Rivers travelled to the University of Queensland earlier this year in Round 4, the team scored one of its best results of the year winning 3-1.

A repeat scoreline would be welcomed but the home side is under no illusions that the opposition is going to make for a tough match.

The University of Queensland is currently in 6th place on the league ladder but only two points out of the four and just four points in arrears of Rivers.

Uni coach Tibor Hagymas knows that a win on the weekend will almost certainly thrust his side into the top four.

Fourth placed Albany Creek are two points clear of the students but have a bye this round, and 5th placed Newmarket, also on 18 points, host top of the table North Star at McCook Park.

With 19 goals for and 20 goals against, Uni will be hoping to shore up their defence.

Grange keen to leave bottom

It is the battle of cellar dwellers at Wallace J Dann Oval when bottom of the table Grange Thistle hosts Mitchelton.

This is a must win game for both clubs as points have eluded them during the first full round of matches this season.

And while both clubs would still consider themselves a chance to make the top four, reality dictates the need to start notching up some wins.

The top sides have crept away after the first full round of matches and three points would be accepted by both clubs as they strive to maintain contact with the leaders.

When the two sides met in Round 4 at Teralba Park, Mitchelton got the better of Grange winning 2-1.

And there is every reason to suspect that this game will be just as close with both clubs displaying similar records to date.

One win and three draws are common factors for both clubs, with the only difference being Mitchelton's seven losses to Grange's six.

Grange obviously have a game in hand and couple of wins could see them make some good inroads into the lead of the top clubs.

However, with the second worst defensive record in the league with 24 goals against, Grange's defence will have to tighten up if they are going to come away with the points from this match.

And the side's goal-poachers will need to start hitting the back of the net on a more regular basis with just 12 goals scored by the team this season.

Ironically, Mitchelton are in a similar position with 11 goals for and 22 goals against which augurs for a close match.

This is the one match in the round that is really too close to call with either side capable of victory.

Easts after more balls in the net

Eastern Suburbs will go into the match against the Gap at Heath Park on Saturday evening as warm favourites.

Easts are travelling quite nicely in third place on the league ladder and on paper, would seem too strong for a Gap outfit that is languishing towards the bottom of the table.

There is an old saying that at the foundation of any successful team lies a solid defence and Easts record this season is testimony to this.

In 10 outings, the side has conceded just eight goals, which would surely bring a smile to the face of coach Frank Byrne.

However, Easts management must be a little concerned at the side's inability to take maximum points away from teams below them on the league ladder.

Five wins gives the side only a 50 per cent winning strike rate which is well below what some pundits may consider acceptable for a side that is challenging for the double.

Easts scoring tally of 14 goals for the season, places the side as the 3rd worst attacking team in the competition, just two goals ahead of last placed Grange Thistle and three in front of second last Mitchelton.

The match this weekend against an out of sorts Gap side provides a good opportunity for Easts to improve their "Goals For" column.

There is no doubt that coach Frank Byrne will be hoping his side can repeat their 1-0 win over the Gap in Round 4, but perhaps with a few more goals.

For Gap coach Billy Williamson, this weekend's clash provides a good opportunity for his side to get their season back on track.

There are still plenty of games remaining for The Gap to stage a revival and if the side can string three or four good results together, they will come back into finals calculations.

Top Four beckons Newmarket

Newmarket must win this weekend at McCook Park to ensure they move into the top four on the league ladder.

A difficult proposition at the best of times given the quality of the competition in the Semi Pro North Division this season.

But a proposition made all that more difficult given that their opposition this weekend is the inform top of the table North Star.

Newmarket have been playing reasonable football this season and there is some truth to the notion that the side could quite easily have been entrenched in the top four by now.

However, five wins, one draw and four losses sees the side just two points out of the top four.

But with 4th placed Albany Creek having the bye this weekend, three points will guarantee Peter Carey's team a place in the top four.

Eighteen goals for and 14 goals against, gives the Newmarket outfit the 4th best differential in the league, a record that is more than acceptable alongside the likes of Pine Rivers and Eastern Suburbs.

But it is a record that will be tested against a North Star outfit that is literally "hot to trot".

When the two sides met in Round 4 at O'Callaghan Park, the league leaders got the better of Newmarket winning 2-1 in a hard fought game.

However, since that game, the North Star attack has been in scintillating form that has seen the side scoring at better than three goals a game.

And with the third best defensive record in the league, North Star have every right to be confident going into this match.

With a game in hand, North Star have the chance to turn up the heat on all of the teams with a win this weekend, a point that will not be lost on coach Steve Faulkner.

Ridge tough ask against Slacks

Acacia Ridge have the task ahead of them when they travel to Usher Park to play Slacks Creek on Saturday evening.

The side has been struggling for form this season with just one win from 11 outings.

Three draws have moved Ridge's points tally along to six for the season which on paper would seem quite poor.

However, given the nature of the Semi Pro South competition this season, a win on the weekend would see Ridge back in contention for a top four spot.

Rocklea United and Capalaba have cleared out from the rest of teams and appear certain to retain the one and two spots at season's end.

But the make-up of the other two spots in the four is hard to predict at this stage.

Indeed, Ridge's hosts on the weekend, Slacks Creek, are currently in 4th place on the league ladder on 15 points, with 3rd placed Souths Utd also on 15 points.

Four wins, three draws and four losses so far this season, indicate that Slacks have had trouble finishing off opposition teams.

And it is not hard to see that one of the major problems for Slacks this year has been the number of goals they are letting in.

Twenty-seven goals in the against column is far too much for a top four outfit and places Slacks well behind the defensive records of the top three teams.

Acacia Ridge have a similar defensive record but the real difference between the two sides is in their attacking prowess.

While Slacks Creek would admit they have had more goals than they would have liked scored against them, their attacking record of 24 goals is the second best in the league.

In contrast, Acacia Ridge have struggled to find the back of the net with only 13 goals.

Rocklea tough test for Inala

Inala City have a tough assignment on Sunday afternoon when they host league leaders Rocklea at Top Oval.

Inala are currently in 5th position on the league ladder on 13 points, two behind 3rd placed Souths Utd and 4th placed Slacks Creek.

Four wins and draw indicate that Inala has had trouble taking points off teams below them on the table.

The side's defensive record must be a little concerning for coach Bob Maclot with 30 goals conceded in 11 games.

It is the leagues worst defensive record and something that must be corrected if the team is to have any chance against the inform Rocklea.

And with just 19 goals scored by the Inala attack this season, it would appear this weekend's match is going to be a hard test for the home side.

When the two teams met back in Round 4 at the Croatian Sports Centre, Rocklea convincingly beat Inala 6-2.

Coach Maclot will be well aware of what has to be done to combat the marauding Rocklea attack.

However, the visitors have proved virtually unstoppable so far this season and go into this match as the hottest of favourites.

Ten wins and a solitary draw from 11 matches would no doubt have brought a big smile to the face of coach Micky Matisic.

Seven points clear at the top of the table, Rockea have gone about matches this year in a tradesman like fashion, completely snuffing any chance of an opposition victory with entertaining attacking play and cast iron defence.

With 44 goals scored, the Rocklea attack is scoring at an incredible four goals a game and have scored almost twice as many goals as any other side in the league.

Defence key to Olympic victory

Olympic Utd must make every opportunity count on Saturday evening when they host Semi Pro Division South heavyweights Capalaba at Goodwin Park on Saturday evening.

Olympic have had an indifferent season to date with four wins and six losses to their credit.

The team is currently in 6th position on the league ladder on 12 points and a win on the weekend would put them in a very handy position with almost half the season gone.

Not only would they consolidate their position, but they could end up challenging for a top four spot.

If Olympic is to upset the in form Capalaba, defence is going to be one of the keys, with the visitors boasting a far superior defensive record.

However, with the Olympic faithful known for their enthusiasm, coach Tony Ecimovic will have his charges primed to rise to the occasion.

Capalaba will be looking to consolidate their spot in second position on the league ladder with a win.

The other top side in the competition, Rocklea Utd are seven points clear of Capalaba and on paper, look to have the wood on the Inala City outfit in their clash on Sunday.

A win for Capalaba would ensure they maintain at least their nine point buffer over the rest of the field.

Whilst Capalaba has not exhibited the same potent attacking force as Rocklea this season, their defensive record is as good any team in the league.

Conceding slightly more than a goal a game for the season, Capalaba has consistently displayed the qualities of a side capable of winning major trophies.

There is no doubt that Olympic are going to find the going fairly hot on the weekend.

Beenleigh chase three points

Beenleigh have the chance to put some pressure on the top four when they host Souths Utd at Chris Green Park on Saturday.

A win and the resulting three points will give the side a much needed boost with almost half the season gone.

But Beenleigh will have to improve on some indifferent form so far this year if they are going to overcome Souths.

The former Premier League side has struggled for results this season with five losses from its ten outings.

Three wins and two draws have placed the side in 7th place on the league ladder on 11 points, four points behind 3rd placed Souths and 4th placed Slacks Creek.

It is not the record that coach Brett Druery would have hoped for at the start of the season.

After experiencing a dismal season in the Premier League last year, Beenleigh's management and players would have been looking for a better showing this year and this weekend provides the perfect opportunity to get back in the winner's circle.

But 3rd placed Souths must go into this game as favourites, even though the team is just four points ahead of Beenleigh on the ladder.

When the two sides met back in Round 4 at Wakerly Park, Souths gave Beenleigh a footballing lesson, crushing the visitors 6-0.

It was a convincing win for Walter Oldenburg's side, but apart from that game, Souths have failed to find the net with the consistency needed to win a premiership.

Four wins, three draws and three losses is testimony to Souths inability to overcome opposition teams.

However, Souths' solid defence has conceded just 11 goals this season, which stands as the league's best defensive record.

Women's Action

with Mike Mulvey

By the time this week's magazine reaches the local soccer supporters, the Australian Women's squad for the World Cup, in the United States of America will have been announced.

The tournament in June and July is the culmination of years of planning, and the first part of what will be an unbelievable 14 months for the Women's game.

The bottom line is, that Australia can become a true force in world soccer. The quality of our players is improving all the time, technically as well as physiologically.

An interesting comparison is to look at the training requirements of the different levels within the game here in Australia.

Presently the Matilda's are doing 10-12 sessions a week. At the QAS we are currently doing five sessions a week, while clubs in the Premier League are in for 2-3 sessions.

While accepting the different agenda's and reasons for training and playing, at each level, the key issue is that over time, the number of sessions completed directly impacts on all area's of the players development.

At the QAS our goal is to have players ready to make the next step on the road to the National teams.

Firstly the player needs to have the desire and then the necessary qualities required to succeed in the upper echelons of the game.

All the girls at the Centralised National Program in Canberra will be awaiting the announcement of the squad this Friday.

The five Queensland girls, Belinda Kitching Joanne Butland, Sonia Gegenhuber, Kim Revel and Alicia Ferguson are all expected to be named in the squad with Sonia as captain.

All players in this great state of ours should be looking at this event and if they have the desire, setting themselves the goal, of playing for Australia in the 2003 World Cup, which is very likely to be held in our own country.

Locally, the QAS girls have been playing quality football lately, and in our recent match against league newcomers Margate, ended up with a comfortable win.

Speaking with Margate player coach, Sue Clayton, it was great to hear her enthuse about the potential of the club and the young players coming through.

Margate can already boast having helped two players on to the next level in Kate McShea and Sarah Blackwell and it seems the club could very well provide more high achieving individuals in the future.

One young girl who I have no hesitation in naming as a future star of the Women's game is Elissia Canham.

Having just turned 14, Elissia possesses mammoth potential. She is a graceful athlete with natural football ability.

Anyone who enjoys seeing players dribble and take on defenders would love to watch Elissia play.

A product of firstly Albany Creek, and then The Gap, Elissia is definitely one who has her feet on the ground and her goal firmly in place.

READ between the LINES

It's begun. The mad rush of National League players to the Premier League competition is underway.

Every year they seem to come in waves when the National League season is over, looking for a short stint to keep their fitness level high and pick up a few easy bucks.

Clubs love it. It's good for profile, good for their performances on the field. What it's not always good for is off-field morale.

There's nothing worse than having a National League player come back to the Premier League with his heart not in it.

They don't meet expectations, they alienate their teammates and they damage team morale.

For every National League player who is a success there's always the odd one that's more trouble than they are worth.

That sort of accusation can't be thrown at Bundaberg's latest signing Wayne Knipe.

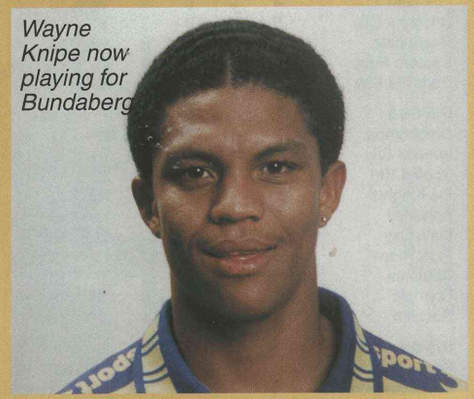
Knipe's the sort of player who always puts in 100 per cent. He just loves playing football. He's a pretty dedicated young man.

How dedicated you ask? Well it seems Knipey has packed up his belongings and headed to Bundaberg to set up house and play for the Waves. You have to admire the talented Knipe's keenness.

Then there's the likes of Glenn Kolpak and Craig Williams, both of whom have linked with Mt Gravatt.

There's no doubt the club needs them. It's been struggling all year. Kolpak has been an instant hit, picking up a few goals already this season.

He's another young fellow who just loves the game. I remember a guy named Craig



Wayne Knipe now playing for Bundaberg

Williams who used to play with the Strikers and a few other clubs in the Premier League.

I hadn't heard his name for a while so I started pouring through the obituary columns just in case I'd missed something.

Then lo and behold I find out he's turned up at Mt Gravatt. What a surprise.

I thought Willow had disappeared off the face of the earth. Seriously though, he's a good signing for the club.

He's experienced, level-headed. His only problem may be some rust. But he's got plenty of class and is a good fit for a club searching for some experience and, more importantly, wins.

Taringa have joined in the quest for national league-inspired results as well. Their story is a little bit different.

The talented Des Hughes went to the Strikers on loan from Taringa. He made an immediate impact, scoring plenty of goals. But the National League club hasn't signed him for next year, yet.

From a personal point of view, if they don't sign Des they need their heads looked at. He's got talent to burn, desire and a nose for goal.

Talking to him recently, he was considering having a break from the game. But the temptation to keep playing appears too much.

How They Fared... here and there
